

Educational visit of students of St. Aloysius Institute of Technology, Jabalpur 8 October, 2024

On the occasion of National Wildlife Week of 2-8 October 2024, the theme "Wildlife Conservation through Co-existence", B.Sc. B.Ed. IIIrd semester students of St. Aloysius Institute of Technology, Jabalpur visited State Forest Research Institute Jabalpur on dated 8 October, 2024 under their educational curriculum.

They further were taken around the museum, herbarium, forest genetics, forest productivity and wildlife, explained by the subject experts of the institute.

Shri Ravindra Mani Tripathi, Dy. Director and HOD of SFRI, Jabalpur delivered multidisciplinary lecture on wildlife conservation and its functional utility in human society survival.

The visit culminated with powerpoint presentation regarding the inception and various phases of wildlife research by Dr. Aniruddha Majumder, Dr. Anjana Rajput and Dr. Mayank Makrand Verma of the Institute.

